LIVE SPEAKERS AT LUNCHEONS

V R Stiles to Talk Thursday on Colonization Methods.

Life speakers with live topics is the rogram for the business men's lunchons each Thursday under the auspices of the chamber of commerce at the Angelus cafe.

Thursday V. R. Stiles, formerly general passenger agent for the South-western system, will speak on "Why El Paso Should Encourage Immigra-tion." During his administration as head of the passenger department of the E. P. & S. W., Mr. Stiles carried on an active colonizing campaign for the settlement of the land along the route of the Southwestern. His information was gathered first hand and the data that he collected will be included in his talk before the business men. There were 57 present at the lunchon last week.

Our displays the balance of the week-especially in ready-to-wear -are indeed striking. You would really think it was a month hence instead of being the early part of February. Our displays are unusually large but price advantages are many. And a purchase here will not only be entirely satisfactory from the standpoint of style, but attractive in price. This applies to Tailored Suits, Coats, Skirts and Dresses.

More Millinery Arrivals

The Millinery Section is keeping pace with other departments. Stylish spring millinerv of the Calisher kindhigh quality combined with moderate price-arrived in abundance the past few days. A new hat is now a necessity as the new styles demand a different dressing of the hair. In fact, no woman who really cares will now be seen with a last season's hat when she can visit the Calisher Millinery Section and find such attractive spring hats so attractively priced.

One-Piece Silk Dresses $13.95

Our New York buyers were successful in securing an underpriced lot of One-Piece Silk Dresses. These are made of splendid quality taffeta silk and come in checked patterns. They have lace yoke finished with sailor tie and show the new belted effects at the waist. Such dresses, bought regularlv. would sell for $18.50 and $22,50. At the price we obtained them we offer them as an Extra Special at

Children's Dresses at Half and Less

These are odd lots of dresses. Some of them are made of pretty woolen materials and some of wash fabrics. They are dainty little dresses, the last of our winter lines. As you know, fashjons in children's clothes change slowly and these pretty frocks are thoroughly appropriate for wear right now. Our spring lines of children's dresses will be here very soon and these odd lots must be disposed of quickly. Tomorrow we give you choice at 1-2 price and, in many cases, less than 1-2 price.

Infants Dresses Slightly Soiled

Price and Less

A lot of Baby Dresses, slightly soiled from display, must be closed out quickly. They are dear little dresses, nicely made. All they need is a bath. Now on sale at 1-2 price, or less.
